

Moruya Books

invites you to a Literary Lunch with

Karen Viggers

In Conversation with Inga Simpson

Born in Melbourne and raised in the Dandenong Ranges riding horses and writing stories, Karen Viggers is a wildlife veterinarian who has worked with native animals in many parts of Australia and Antarctica.

Karen's first three novels, The Stranding (2008), The Lightkeeper's Wife (2011) and The Grass Castle (2014) have been translated into several languages and have sold over 800,000 copies. The Orchardist's Daughter is her latest offering.

@ The Moruya Waterfront Hotel

Tuesday 19th March, 12pm—2pm

$25 for a 2 course lunch

Bookings Essential — 4474 2242

